The test is new. The Princeton Review is not.

For more than 20 years, we have focused on helping pre-meds score higher on the MCAT®. That’s why, when it comes to our MCAT2015 Ultimate course, we are confident you’ll excel at each competency tested on the longer, more challenging exam—so much that we guarantee it.*

MCAT2015 Ultimate is our most comprehensive MCAT course, with:

- 508+ hours of prep covering all content and strategies:
  - 123 hours of live instruction, including 21 hours of Critical Analysis and Reasoning (CARS) and 18 hours of Psychology and Sociology coaching
  - 128 hours of extra help outside of class with our instructors
  - 257+ hours of online resources, including thousands of practice questions
- 4 to 6 certified subject-matter experts trained to help you excel on the longer, more challenging MCAT2015 exam
- 11 full-length practice tests, diagnostic exams in advance of each class and all AAMC materials as they are released
- amplifire™, an exclusive learning tool leveraging state-of-the-art brain research on the biochemical processes underlying memory, to help you quickly learn the science concepts you must know on test day
- Interactive dashboard delivering a personalized study plan that takes the guessing out of what, why and when to study
- Money-back guarantee
