1. Applications due October 31 – Fundamentals of Leadership Program
The SMHS Fundamentals of Leadership Program helps mid-level full-time faculty with new or expanded leadership responsibilities. The program focuses on the development and implementation of one work-related project. Fundamentals of Leadership will begin with a daylong orientation in January 2019 and meet for monthly sessions ending in September 2019. In between sessions, participants will work with a mentor for on-going support. For details on application requirements, please visit https://smhs.gwu.edu/cfe/leadership-development/fundamentals-leadership-program.

2. Academy of Education Scholars New Members
The Academy of Education Scholars recently welcomed six new members:
- Kirsten Brown, PhD, MA – Department of Anatomy & Cell Biology
- Katherine Douglass, MD, MPH – Department of Emergency Medicine
- Guy Lotrecchiano, EdD, PhD – Department of Clinical Research & Leadership
- James Rao, MD – Department of Radiology
- Zeina Saliba, MD – Department of Psychiatry and Emergency Medicine
- Meghan Valentine, MD - Department of Obstetrics & Gynecology

3. Changes to the Master Teacher Leadership Development Program
The Master Teacher Leadership Development Program has been redesigned as 5 courses, running from September-June: Adult Learning, Curriculum Design, Assessment of Learning, Work Groups & Teams, and Leadership in Organizations. Application information for the cohort starting September 2019 will be available in the next month.

4. New on the CFE Website
A list of funding mechanisms for Education Research as well as tips on writing up your data as an abstract and how to present your education research at a national meeting.