A Day in the Life of a Medical Student

GREETINGS...

The students of The George Washington University School of Medicine and Health Sciences would like to welcome you to the 13th “A Day in the Life of a Medical Student.” This program for family and friends is designed to provide insight into the journey of becoming a physician. We are looking forward to seeing those of you who will be joining us for the first time, as well as those who are returning for another visit. Our educational experiences throughout medical school are both exciting and challenging. Please join us for a snapshot of life as we know it. The day’s events will include breakfast, lectures, a luncheon, small group discussions, and of course, a graduation ceremony to celebrate your accomplishments.

3 p.m. Discussion Group, Session #2 (see choices)
4 p.m. Commencement Activities and Farewell

APPLICATION INFORMATION

Please complete this application to become a medical student for a day. Indicate the name of your medical student as well as each guest who will be attending. Guests must be 13 years old or older. The price for each guest is $45, which includes breakfast, lunch, and all activities. Your medical student is invited to join you for lunch on the Georgetown Waterfront free of charge. To sign up for discussion groups, each participant should select his/her top 3 choices from the list provided. Write the letters of the preferred discussion groups in the identified spaces. Please separate this form at the perforated line to the left and return it with a check made payable to The George Washington University (address on reverse side).

Please respond by January 23, 2015, as space is limited. Applications are accepted on a first come, first served basis.
