

The Offices of the Provost and the Vice President for Research present...

Early Career Faculty CAMP

“Career Advancement and Mentoring Program” is a training series designed to assist in developing key career enhancement skills for both early career faculty and postdoctoral fellows.

Series Includes:

A Dialogue with the Provost:
What GW Means by “Excellence”
Steven Lerman, Academic Affairs
September 9, 2015, 12:30pm-1:30pm, MC 405

Charting Your Course:
Goal Setting and Prioritizing
Jennifer Wisdom, OVPR and panel of distinguished faculty
October 14, 2015, 12:30pm-1:30pm, MC 403

Successful Scholarship:
Turning Practice into Theory
Larrie Greenberg, SMHS
Eric Arneson, CCAS
November 11, 2015, 12:30pm-1:30pm, MC 302

Making the Most of Your Time
Sara Melita, Senior Advisor
February 11, 2016, 12:30pm-1:30pm, MC 403

Integrity in Academic Life:
Real Stories from Faculty
Dianne Martin, Academic Affairs
Sheila Garrity, OVPR
March 10, 2016, 12:30pm-1:30pm, MC 403

How to Find a Mentor
Mary Corcoran, SMHS
April 14, 2016, 12:30pm-1:30pm, MC 403

Please RSVP at the Provost Website!

THE GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

WASHINGTON, DC