LETTER FROM THE DEAN

Health Sciences Graduates,

I write this note with bittersweet emotions – proud and happy for the commitments you have made and the many achievements during your years at GW SMHS, but also with a bit of sadness that we cannot celebrate your graduation day as a fully gathered community to mark that symbolic moment when you advance in your health care career. Your graduation is truly a momentous occasion, and while this year’s graduation event looks a bit different than usual it should feel the same, for it is still a major milestone for all to celebrate.

The COVID-19 pandemic has disrupted so much in our lives over these last several months including, of course, the traditional GW Commencement Ceremonies on the National Mall and our own graduation celebration in Lisner Auditorium. The pandemic will not, however, change the time-honored tradition of recognizing you for your accomplishments. Please know that we are all extremely proud of you for your hard work and resilience.

On behalf of the entire GW faculty and staff, I congratulate you on your graduation! I know that in the coming weeks you will move on to the next steps in your careers; what an exceptional time in the history of medicine and health sciences to be doing so. I know you will continue to grow, learn, care, and contribute to the benefit of your patients, your profession, your communities and our shared world in the years and decades ahead. We all look forward to watching with pride and joy as you move forward to do your important work.

Last, on this graduation day, I personally wish you the very best and I welcome you to the GW SMHS alumni community.

With high regards,

Barbara Lee Bass, MD
Vice President for Health Affairs
Dean, GW School of Medicine and Health Sciences
CEO, The GW Medical Faculty Associates
On behalf of the faculty and staff of the George Washington University, congratulations to each member of the Class of 2020. We acknowledge your dedication and applaud your accomplishments during your education in the School of Medicine and Health Sciences.

The mission of GW Health Sciences is to drive innovation and quality in health and health care delivery through education, scholarship, and service—locally, nationally, and globally. We embrace core values of diversity & inclusion, collaboration, and innovation as we live that mission. We are grateful for the contributions you have made during your time at the School of Medicine and Health Sciences to help shape a community that values cultural and intellectual diversity and demonstrates integrity, creativity, and innovation.

This year and your graduation are also being defined by the unprecedented COVID-19 pandemic. Society and our health care systems alike face tremendous challenges. We are saddened that we will not see you walk across the graduation stage on campus this year; however, your accomplishments and perseverance during this uncertain time prove how valuable you will be to the health care and research workforce. We hope the virtual celebrations and graduation activities planned help us all come together while being physically apart. I also want to invite you to join us at University Commencement 2021, held on the National Mall, to be recognized as well.

Today, you become a part of the university and the school’s alumni family. This family is stronger and more dynamic because of your talents, passion, and capabilities. Some of you will heal through innovative and compassionate care. Others will advance biomedical, translational, and health services delivery research. Many will contribute to cultures of excellence, and you bring us hope for a better future in health care and the health sciences—a future where attaining the highest level of health for all people is realized.

Take time to thank the many people who supported you during your journey to this point. Consider honoring that support in the years ahead by helping others reach their goals and career aspirations. Let me end with a few words of wisdom and guidance that others imparted to me. Serve others with compassion. Accept that you will never possess all the knowledge you need. Instead, learn to harness knowledge and recognize your own limitations. Be an agent of positive change within your community. Be present—take time to nurture your personal and professional relationships. Finally, choose the path of leadership, and lead through your character by embracing courage, integrity, selflessness, empathy, collaboration, and reflection.

Along with all the faculty and staff in the School of Medicine and Health Sciences, I offer my congratulations and wish you every success in your future endeavors.

Sincerely,

Reamer L. Bushardt, PharmD, PA-C, DFAAPA

SCHOOL OF MEDICINE & HEALTH SCIENCES PLEDGE

I will lead my life and practice my profession with integrity and compassion, treating each individual I see with dignity and respect.

I promise to comfort, care, and work toward curing the sick and disabled and will strive to promote the health and well-being of all the people for whom I care.

I will work for the benefit of, and avoid harm to, the individuals I serve and those who are my colleagues; and even if directed, I will do nothing that I believe could harm my patient.

I will use my knowledge and skill to serve all individuals, regardless of race, gender, religion, disease, or social status.

I will respect the privacy of every person and will hold confidential all information about patients for whom I care.

I pledge to continue to learn and grow in my profession and continually seek to gain new knowledge.

I will constantly strive to contribute to my profession through teaching others who can benefit from my knowledge.

I promise to pursue each of the tenets of this pledge with strength and courage, to the utmost of my power.
