

Center for Faculty Excellence Teaching Essentials Series

A series of one-hour workshops for scientists, clinicians, researchers, post-docs, and graduate students who want to learn more about key aspects of teaching & learning. Each session has an online component consisting of short videos and brief exercises to do on your own prior to the session. Participants then attend a 1-hour interactive virtual workshop session to apply concepts and get feedback from peers.

Session Topics

Sessions are held monthly from August 2023 - December 2023 as indicated above from 12:00 - 1:00 pm via Zoom.
