POLICY ON INCLEMENT WEATHER

Policy Statement

If the George Washington University closes or makes a decision to cancel classes, School of Medicine and Health Sciences (SMHS) students and faculty should follow the instructions for their programs recorded on (202) 994-2196.

Instructions for pre-clinical MD students will be stated on the SMHS homepage (smhs.gwu.edu) and on a recorded message at (202) 994-2196. In the event of delayed opening or early closure, students should check the Blackboard site for instructions on make-up work for which they will be responsible.

Medical students on clinical rotations should report to clinical sites if it is safe to do so. Students unable to report to their clinical sites must notify their supervising physician (faculty member) as well as the clerkship director/clinical coordinator.
